

It was resolved that new sites for the steel silhouettes would be found. Cllr's Burton, Taylor, Baish and others offered their properties.

Willow Garth: See minute under Police Item 3.

Parishoners' Questions: Reference was made to the state of the footpath just north of Gray's Farm. This was work done by the contractor for the Coastal path project, believed to be CR Reynolds.

Once again the road between Mappleton and Hatfield was mentioned as being in a poor state and in need of attention. Increased use by visitors attracted by the beach at Mappleton and the proliferation of caravan sites have placed increased pressure on this road without any satisfactory upgrading of roads or paths.

AOB: There was none.
